Proposed logging by-law approved by Dysart et al

by SUE COOPER
Echo Editor

Dysart et al council approved a draft by-law, that if enacted will control logging operations on private land, at its regular meeting Monday. Peter Hynard, of the Minden District of the Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR), presented the by-law to council on behalf of the Forestry Advisory Group that was established by council to deal with the problem of uncontrolled logging in the municipality. Members of the committee, who unanimously accepted the by-law, were Hynard, John Bruce representing Haliburton Lake cottagers, Bill Emerson, a large land holder, Sinc Nesbitt, a long-time logger, Charlie Heard, a forester, Brian Sarginson, manager of G.W. Martin Lumber in Harcourt, Ray Woodward of Woodland Ranch and Sid Cooper, council's representative.

The by-law was drafted for the Dysart et al council, but a by-law to restrict and regulate the destruction of trees must be approved by the Haliburton County council although it may only cover Dysart et al. The council agreed to send the proposed by-law to the county's forest management committee, chaired by Elgin Stouffer, for consideration.

An important aspect of the proposed by-law, which is not normally contained in municipal by-laws, is a sunset clause. This section calls for the by-law to expire one year after the Minister of Natural Resources approves it. The committee suggested council should then review and amend the by-law to reflect any problems that have arisen during its tenure.

The committee stated the by-law was drafted "to protect young timber from premature harvesting operations, to protect the shores of lakes, rivers and the roads and residential developments from unregulated harvesting operations and to protect the local deer herd from the loss of conifer cover within traditional winter range".

According to the proposed by-law, it will not interfere with a property owner to cut trees for his own use on land he has owned for at least two years; interfere with the rights of the municipality, Ontario Hydro or any agency acting on behalf of the crown; apply to trees growing on a highway or opened road allowance; apply to trees growing in a woodlot that is two acres or less in area unless the by-law specifically stipulates that it does; apply to trees destroyed to erect a building or thing for which a building permit is issued; apply to trees planted for production of Christmas trees; apply to trees cut by an Ontario land surveyor or any person in his employ while making a survey; apply to trees in a licenced pit or quarry or those destroyed to establish or enlarge a pit or quarry; or apply to trees cut in accordance with good forestry practice.

Property owners will be restricted from cutting or destroying nine species of trees under a minimum size. Trees not allowed to be cut are hard or soft maple, yellow birch, basswood, white ash, black cherry and white or red spruce, under 38 inches in circumference equal to 12 inches in diameter, red oak or white or red pine 47 inches in circumference equal to 14 inches in diameter.

Trees of this size will be allowed to be cut if they must be removed to allow the normal construction of skid trails, landings and logging roads or to allow other trees to be cut.

Unless it is provided in the by-law the cutting of living hemlock within a traditional winter deer yard is prohibited.

No living tree should be cut or destroyed within 50 feet of any river, lake, provincial highway, county or township road or within 300 feet of a river or lake whose shore lands are zoned residential or seasonal residential or within 50 feet of any residential land.

However, the by-law does allow property owners alternatives to the restrictions. The owner of any trees may apply for a minor exception to the by-law. The committee cautioned in its proposal that the council should ensure that the general intent and purpose of the by-law are maintained if a minor exception is made.

The by-law also suggests an enforcement officer should be hired to enforce the regulations. The officer would have the right, under the provincial Trees Act to enter the land of any person to enforce the by-law or to determine if an order of court has been complied with or to examine trees that might

Chamber of Commerce announces fall program

In an ambitious move, the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce has announced a fall promotional program designed to bring hundreds of cottagers and visitors back into the area in the peak of the autumn colour season.

The caravan-style program, christened the Haliburton Highlands Harvest Festival, features four pavilions in four different towns on September 24 and October 1 week-ends.

The project was officially unveiled at press conference held at Wig-a-Mog Inn on Lake Kashagawagomog, Sunday evening.

The four pavilions, featuring fine food and entertainment from "theme" countries, are expected to attract 1,000 visitors to enjoy the festival.

The program begins September 24 at the Minden Community Centre. The Minden figure skating club will entice the crowd with a Caribbean Islands theme. September 25 features a German theme hosted by the Glamorgan recreation committee at the Gooderham/Glamorgan Community Centre.

Activities will be reborn the next week-end at the Stanhope community centre with the local volunteer firefighters providing French food and entertainment. The final pavilion will be held October 2 at the Haliburton Legion Hall. The Haliburton Rotary Club will take visitors to another time and place in the British Isles.

Passports to the events go on sale August 15 at the chamber office and Sandalwood Gifts in

Officials dispute critical fire story

MNR had representative at the fire within minutes: district office

The Dysart et al fire department, the Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR) and the Haliburton Lake fire warden have taken exception to facts presented in the page one story (Cottagers are concerned: The fire department's lack of interest has people worried) of last week's edition of The Echo. Fire chief Howard Roberts, whose department was criticized in an editorial for its apparent lack of response to the forest fire near Haliburton Lake, seriously considered resigning. "There's not much for you in the fire department but being a good citizen, but when you're ridiculed for being a good citizen" it isn't worth serving, Roberts said. He explained that members of the department and community had dissuaded him from resigning.

While cottagers were reported in The Echo story to be concerned when the fire department suggested they call MNR to battle the fire, Roberts said this was common practice since the ministry's men are trained and equipped to work in the bush. "There was certainly no one in danger," Roberts said.

The MNR field services supervisor Tom Russell was concerned by the times outlined in The Echo story. While it was reported that the Minden office was contacted at 8:30 but the crew didn't arrive until 11:30, Russell said a three man crew left the office at 8:35 and arrived in the area of the fire at 9:45 a.m. The scene of the fire was approximately 40 miles from the MNR office and additional time was required to find the exact location of the blaze.

Although the MNR crew did not arrive until an hour after being contacted the ministry's local fire warden was on the scene within minutes of being contacted by the MNR office. "I think we were well represented" Russell said.

John Bruce, who was on the fire scene, said there was "no problem at all". He felt both the MNR and the fire department had done everything possible to fight the fire efficiently.

Bruce said approximately 20 cottagers helped to "contain" the fire and that few were upset with the MNR or fire department's response.

"I was very upset with the article. I talked to a lot of cottagers and they weren't terribly concerned," he said.

The spray shot into the air off the feet of barefoot skiers at the waterski show, Thursday evening. The show, which was part of the annual Haliburton village Rotary carnival, encouraged hundreds of spectators to come to the government dock. For more pictures of the fun events at the carnival see page 9.

Highway 519 to stay in county road system

County council voted to keep the former highway 519 in the county road system since it is the only county road which qualifies for special construction funds from the Ministry of Transportation and Communications. Although Snowdon representatives on the council have opposed the assumption of the highway into the county road system for more than a year, no nay votes were registered to the motion.

According to secondary highway traffic counts which regulate the amount of funding available, if the road is assumed into the county system, the former highway, now known as county road one, qualifies for $1,250,000 from the MTC. The county must match 20 per cent of all construction costs. The money is expected to be allotted in smaller amounts over a period of years.

This week-end is fly-in time again at the Stanhope Airport.

Sunday, the Highlands will again be treated to an air show that in past years has provided thrilling and interesting activities.

Provisional dropped from title, lengthy discussions now ended

County council finally passed a resolution to drop the title of "provisional" after months of deliberation, last Thursday evening.

At a special meeting, the council petitioned the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing (MMAH) to repeal the present Haliburton Act and institute the County of Haliburton Act. Only three members of the council registered nay votes. Those against the motion were representatives of Cardiff Township, reeve Malcolm McGillivray, Mack Peters and Snowdon reeve Bob Vick.

In the resolution that accepted the new act the council noted that no disadvantages will be felt if the status was changed.

The meeting was called after a consultant appointed by MMAH, Ted Foster, had spoken to municipal councils in the county and had determined that changing the status would not harm, and in all likelihood would benefit, the county.

While the provisional county was established 108 years ago, since the small population of the highlands did not require the services of a court and jail, the new act still relies on the services of Victoria County to provide court and lock-up facilities.

The new act also states that the land registrar office, which is presently in Minden, "shall keep his office in a place to be named for that purpose in his commission, or at such other place as is appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council".

Lawrence and Nightingale Townships, which are presently part of Algonquin Park, will be reunited with Sherborne, McClintock and Livingstone. This move will probably allow Sherborne municipality to collect grants in lieu of taxes from the provincial government.

The new act will be sent to the provincial government's

Only a week before, Haliburton Huskie fumbled out of the starting gate in last position, only to pull ahead to win his first lifetime start.

Vasey and Maggie Magnusson, wife of the horse's trainer Glenn Magnusson, purchased Haliburton Huskie last year. He is Vasey's third stakes winner after Kennisis and Kushog entered the winner's circle in added-money events.

Haliburton Huskie ran the six furlongs in 1:12 1/5 a full second slower than last year's winning horse. He finished a long nose ahead of Consular Tune to earn the winner's share of $38,800.

For a $2 bet, Haliburton Huskie returned $5.40 at 8 to 5 odds. He was second choice after Consular Tune at 3 to 2.

Although Haliburton Huskie's next race was uncertain after the stakes win, the $50,000 added Vandal Stakes at Fort Erie, this Saturday, was being considered.

Haliburton Huskie has fared better than Vasey's other local hockey team namesake, Minden Monarch, who is currently competing against $2,000 claiming horses.

Briefly ...

Occurrences still high

The number of general occurrences investigated by the Minden detachment of the OPP are still high in the peak summer season. From August 2 to 8, the personnel investigated 16 thefts, 12 lost and founds, 11 break and enters, 11 liquor offences and seven damage complaints. Seven people were injured in 17 motor vehicle collisions.

Man jumps from roller

A Lindsay man was rushed by air ambulance to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto with a suspected punctured lung after he jumped clear of an asphalt roller which had gone out of control. Raymond White, 59, was operating the machine on County Road three in Glamorgan Township, when it began to gain momentum on a downgrade. White jumped off just before the roller jack-knifed and rolled over. He broke several ribs which led to the suspicion of a punctured lung, when he landed.

Falling tree kills man

A 19-year-old Oshawa man was killed in a freak logging accident in Harcourt Township last Tuesday. Dead is Lyle Gordon Forester. He was struck by a felled tree as he travelled on a three-wheel all-terrain vehicle on a logging road. A three man crew was harvesting trees in the area when the 12 inch diameter, 60 foot poplar tree fell on the man. Forester had been staying at his family's cottage on Benoit Lake. He was rushed to Haliburton hospital by ambulance but was pronounced dead on arrival. The coroner was Dr. Harry Good.

Youths assaulted

Three Haliburton village youths have been charged after two separate assaults were reported last week. Last Friday evening an employee at the Haliburton Sky Slider, David Terry, 17 of Woodstock, was punched in the face. Robert Smith, 23 of Haliburton village, was charged with assault causing bodily harm. Steven Tripp, 18 of Dysart Township, was charged with consuming alcohol while a minor as a result of the incident.

Later that evening, two out-of-town youths reported they were set upon and punched for no apparent reason while standing at the main intersection in Haliburton village. Shaughan Wilson, 18 of Dysart Township, has been charged with assault causing bodily harm and breach of probation.

Sander truck stolen

A sander truck was taken from the Dysart road department's yard on highway 118 and driven through the gate before being abandoned near Jim Beef Lake, Friday night. The clutch of the vehicle was apparently seized. Youths were seen walking towards West Guilford along the highway and police became suspicious. Two Hamner youths, Boris Bendicic, 16 and Andrew Corneau, 17, have been charged with theft of the truck. Road superintendent Howard Roberts also reported that township equipment on Weno Lake road had been damaged. Two loaders had their headlights shot out, apparently by pellet guns. Three juveniles and a 16 year old have been charged.

Teenager sees 'kidnapping'

A Dysart Township teenager thought she had witnessed a kidnapping last Monday evening when she saw two men put a third man in the trunk of a grey foreign model car and then drive down an isolated Minden township road. The girl was not positive, but she thought the man might have had his hands tied behind his back. Although she was shocked by the sight the girl managed to copy down the car's licence number. A registration of the licence number led investigators to a Minden township residence where the car was located. The trunk, however, was empty.

The owner of the car had an explanation that solved the kidnapping. He had rounded up two of his neighbours and asked for their help in solving a problem he was experiencing. It seems his car had a rattle that could not be located by service mechanics.

After driving to the Old Ingoldsby Road, the car owner climbed into the trunk and had the lid closed. His neighbours then drove the car along the road as he listened for the rattle.

The car owner never did locate the rattle and now believes it may be somewhere on the undercarriage. He didn't elaborate on how he intended to check this location.

Motorists are warned to keep their speed in check as the radar equipped cruiser has returned to Haliburton County.

The black and white car does not have the usual roof mounted emergency lights and cannot be so readily identified as a force vehicle.

Damage soars in collision

Damage amounted to $22,000 in five accidents last week.

Thursday, Konrad Sedlack, 59 of Scarborough, was travelling south on highway 35 Minden by-pass, and made a left hand turn when he was struck by a northbound car. Norval Watson, 53 of Fenelon Falls, driver of the other vehicle was treated for injuries at the Minden hospital.

Damage to Sedlack's 1981 Plymouth was $2,000 and Watson's 1970 Pontiac sustained $1,000 damage.

Sedlack was charged with making an unsafe left turn.

A 1979 Thunderbird received extensive damages when it hit rocks along county road seven in Guilford Township, Friday.

Michael Barnes, 23 of Mississauga, was treated at Haliburton Hospital for minor injuries. The car was damaged to the tune of $7,000.

Barnes was charged with careless driving, failing to wear a seatbelt and possession of a narcotic.

A Brampton man was seriously injured when he lost control of his motorcycle on a gravel patch on county road 13 in Stanhope Township Friday night. Robert Thompson, 28, was driving, but his passenger, Don Grimwood, 25 of Toronto received only minor injuries.

Gertrude Martin, 63 of Echo Bay, Ontario, was taken to Haliburton Hospital after her car went onto the shoulder of highway 118 in Dysart township and then tipped onto its side.

The 1980 Dodge was estimated with $2,000 damage.

Martin was charged with careless driving.

Two people were treated at Haliburton Hospital after the car swerved to miss an animal on county road 18 in Minden township early Saturday morning.

Regan MacDonald, 18 of Mississauga, swerved his 1982 Honda car to miss the animal and the vehicle left the roadway and rolled over. Riding in the vehicle was Kevin Neally of Mississauga.

The car received $10,000 damage.

County council has summer discussions

A special meeting of County Council was convened in the Council Chambers, August 5.

Council passed the following resolutions:

Whereas the present Haliburton Act addresses such matters as administration of justice, financing of the Railway, and aid to grist mills;

And whereas in the year 1982 justice is the responsibility of the province, and the railway has become no longer operational, and grist mills are now non-existent;

And whereas for the past 108 years county councils have, within the limitations of small population spread over a large area, satisfactorily performed the functions of a county;

And whereas it has been confirmed by study that there will not be disadvantages in changing of status;

Now therefore be it resolved that the Provisional County of Haliburton petition the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing to repeal the present Haliburton Act, Chapter 194, R.S.O. 1980, and introduce to the Legislature of the Province of Ontario a County of Haliburton Act in accordance with the proposal prepared for and circulated to County Council this date, erecting Haliburton to full County status.

Registered nay votes: M. McGillivray, M. Peters, R. Vick.

Of the 18 voters of County Council, fifteen members voted in favour of the resolution, while three members registered Nay votes.

Warden Gambell expressed appreciation to the Honourable Claude Bennett for making available the consulting services for the benefit of the County, and for the extensive study and liaison with the municipalities. Warden Gambell thanked Ted Foster to whom he presented a copy of "In Quest of Yesterday".

The town of Minden was accepted as the County Seat and all offices will be located in Minden.

Planning Chairman Ken Maguire read a letter received from the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing which indicated subsidy available for an appraisal and if desired for an Official Plan, but stated that the terms of reference as already presented referred directly to an official plan and did not give planning options, and were therefore not acceptable. Members suggested it was too late in the election year to pursue a plan at this time.

County council drafted a resolution to request representatives from the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing to draft new terms of reference for an appraisal to look at the planning options for Haliburton County in conjunction with the planning committee, subject to the appraisal being subsidized by the Province. The motion was not passed.

Resolution no. 69/82 was rescinded.

Clerk W. Lahay referred to a letter received from the Kawartha - Haliburton Children's Aid Society requesting approval of 1982 estimates.

County Council of the Provisional County of Haliburton accepted the 1982 estimates

At the regular Galway-Cavendish council meeting, the following matters were discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Moulton attended the meeting to discuss the possibility of closing the road allowance leading to water lying between Glamorgan and Cavendish townships, on Concession 18, lot 4.

Council indicated that they would agree to stopping up and closing the portion of road allowance as indicated on the survey presented at a cost of .065 cents per square foot.

They were also informed that due to the irregular shape of their lands they would have to obtain permission from Glamorgan Township.

Ken Jones attended the meeting to discuss his plans for a proposed plan of subdivision on Concession 18, lot 7, Fortescue Lake in Cavendish Township.

Council informed Jones of the steps that were required to prepare a draft plan for a proposed subdivision.

A general voucher for the month of July in the amount of $151,264.19 was approved for payment. An amount of $135,000 on the voucher was for term deposits.

A road voucher for the month of July in the amount of $34,527.38 was approved for payment.

A policy for appointing members to the culture and recreation committee was adopted as read.

mittee member assumes the chairperson position of a subcommittee, then his/her position as an appointed committee member shall remain vacant until filled by Council when his/her term is completed, or the position of subcommittee chairperson is assumed by someone else;

The resignation of Deputy Fire Chief, Horace Manktelow, from the Cavendish Platoon of the Galway Cavendish Volunteer fire department, was accepted with regret.

Rick Asling was appointed as Deputy Fire Chief for the Cavendish Platoon of the Galway Cavendish Volunteer Fire Department, effective immediately as recommended by Chief Hickey.

The council certified that Restricted Area By-law 82-27, passed by Council on July 12, 1982 is in conformity with the Official Plan of the North Kawartha Planning Area as approved and which was in force as of the date of passage of By-law 82-27.

The council of Glamorgan was advised that the townships of Galway and Cavendish are opposed to any consideration to have Highway 507 assumed into a County Road System and further the Municipality would not be supportive of entering into the Peterborough County Road System to permit a legal transfer of responsibility to take place and further that no formal or informal request of this nature has been received from Ministry of Transportation and Communications to the County of Peterborough or the townships of Galway and Cavendish.

The Clerk was instructed to contact the township solicitor to arrange for an agreement to be drawn up between Phillip Turner and the municipality for the creation of four lots in Concession 6, lot 22 Cavendish and further that Turner assume all costs relating to this matter and further that a retainer fee of $1,000 be placed on deposit with the township prior to any expenses being incurred by the municipality.

The Clerk was instructed to issue tenders prepared by Greer Galloway and Associates for upgrading and expansion of the Galway Cavendish Community Centre with a closing date of August 27, 1982 at 4 p.m.

The building committee was authorized to open tenders at 6:30 p.m. August 27 and submit their analysis and recommendations to council at its August 30 regular meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown and others were present to discuss with council the status of the right of way leading to the public access point on Bob Lake.

The municipal law enforcement officer was directed to investigate the matter and report back to council.

be affected by a minor exception.

Hynard told the council a part-time officer could be hired to regulate the by-law at an estimated cost of $3,300 per year.

Anyone who is found guilty of contravening the by-law can be fined up to $5,000 or imprisoned for up to three months or both.

After the presentation of the proposed by-law, Reeve Murray Fearrey suggested the committee meet with Stouffer's management group to discuss the by-law further. The group agreed it would be willing to meet with the county committee.

The precision dancing of the Royal Lipizzan stallions entertained the crowd at Minden community centre Thursday. After the show the spectators were invited to view the horses in the group's temporary barn outside the centre. The crowd was allowed to pet the valuable horses and speak to members of the tour group in an informal manner.

A,H,M discusses county title

At the meeting of Anson, Hindon and Minden council on July 28 the following matters were discussed:

Ted Foster of the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing was present and discussed with council the implications of the Provisional County of Haliburton obtaining full county status.

Council agreed that the word "provisional" should be deleted provided that the following clauses be included in the new Haliburton County Act which is being prepared:

(a) Confirmation that grants from the Ministry of Education will not be reduced;

(b) The registry office will remain in Minden since it is the county seat;

(c) If a jail or court house is constructed at some future date that it be constructed in Minden.

Parking will be prohibited on Main Street from the bridge to Sandy White Woolens/Northland Sales between the hours of 9 a.m. and 12 a.m. on August 13 to permit the merchants of the community to hold a special sales promotion.

Gord Crosby and Fred Clayton of Totten Sims Hubicki Associates were present to review the construction program approved under the Job Creation Grant.

Council agreed to completely grade and reconstruct Prince Street beginning September 7, from its intersection at Teasdale Street to its intersection at Milne Street. Paving will be postponed until 1983.

The BIA project was also reviewed and it was understood that the condition of the sidewalks was a major concern and should be given priority. The representatives were directed to contact the members of the BIA for more details.

D. Stevens attended Council concerning the erosion of the riverbanks fronting his property at Beaverbrook Golf Course.

He requested that his erosion problem be retained on file for future consideration in the event that funds become available for stabilization programs through the various government ministries.

Council suggested that a meeting should be arranged with the Ministry of Natural Resources to establish a stabilization program for the entire section of the Gull River.

Peter Garnick, President of the South Bob Lake Cottagers Association was present and reviewed with Council the status of the multiple severances which lapse in September 1982. He reported that the survey had been completed and each owner was agreeable to accept the respective conveyances however, the matter of excessive cost for the clerical work to complete the transfers combined with the various other financial costs of the project to date was of great concern and as the township was also benefiting, Garnick requested council to complete the remaining clerical work on behalf of the association on a no-cost basis.

The Clerk was directed to obtain information and details regarding this request and report back to Council.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown and others were present to discuss with council the status of the right of way leading to the public access point on Bob Lake.

The municipal law enforcement officer was directed to investigate the matter and report back to council.

Wesley Kent, president of the Minden Lake Ratepayers Association attended to advise council of the concerns.

Based on the Interim Report and discussion with Ted Foster and subject to written assurance from the Minister of Education, the council is agreeable to removal of the "Provisional" designation from the county of Haliburton.

A by-law to rescind by-law 80-14, was passed.

No loggerheads

Dysart et al took an aggressive and positive step Monday when it accepted the proposed tree cutting by-law presented by its Forestry Advisory Group. The regulations contained in the document, which have never been enforced in any part of the county before, attempt to protect the interests of the public, the professional loggers, wildlife and cottage owners.

If implemented and enforced properly this by-law could easily meet this "pie-in-the-sky" objective.

For years, the interests of loggers have confronted the interests of recreational visitors and conservationists. But now under one wide-sweeping but concise law, those interests could be channelled in the same direction.

Loggers, who made up the majority of the study group, can look forward to a more profitable future when the forests begin to produce the top quality timber they are capable of. By setting a minimum standard size of trees to be harvested, the best trees will be allowed to grow to maturity rather than be butchered for firewood.

The group, however, was careful not to make the by-law too restrictive that proper and financially feasible logging could not continue in the county. Allowances are made for "good forestry practices" that if followed should improve every woodlot that is logged.

Seasonal and residential property owners are also protected with minimum buffer zones between their property and timber harvesting. At the same time, the land owner who wishes to cut timber for his own use, which excludes "any sale, exchange or other disposition" of timber cut from the property, is not denied this right.

Wildlife has been protected by the confirmation that winter deer yards exist that the cutting of any living hemlock is prohibited in these areas.

The group of men who designed the by-law range from a ministry of natural resources employee, to loggers, to a cottager representative and a member of the Dysart et al council.

That they could deliberate on such an explosive subject and report back to council with a clear and, it would seem, enforceable by-law, that should please most reasonable land owners and loggers, is commendable indeed.

Breaking the rule

It has been claimed the Haliburton Rotary Club carnival was the most financially successful carnival in recent years sponsored by the club. While the funds raised are undoubtedly important as they are filtered back into the community and towards helping crippled children, the club deserves additional praise for the efforts it put into this year's event.

Carnivals are usually dubbed the "biggest and the best yet" even if they do not deserve the title, but this case is an exception to the rule.

The club put extra effort into organizing new events this year while continuing to provide the traditional activities that have been enjoyed in the past. The fun and fitness run, the horseshoe tournament and the Dixie Land Ambassadors playing in the bandshell, all added to the atmosphere of the carnival.

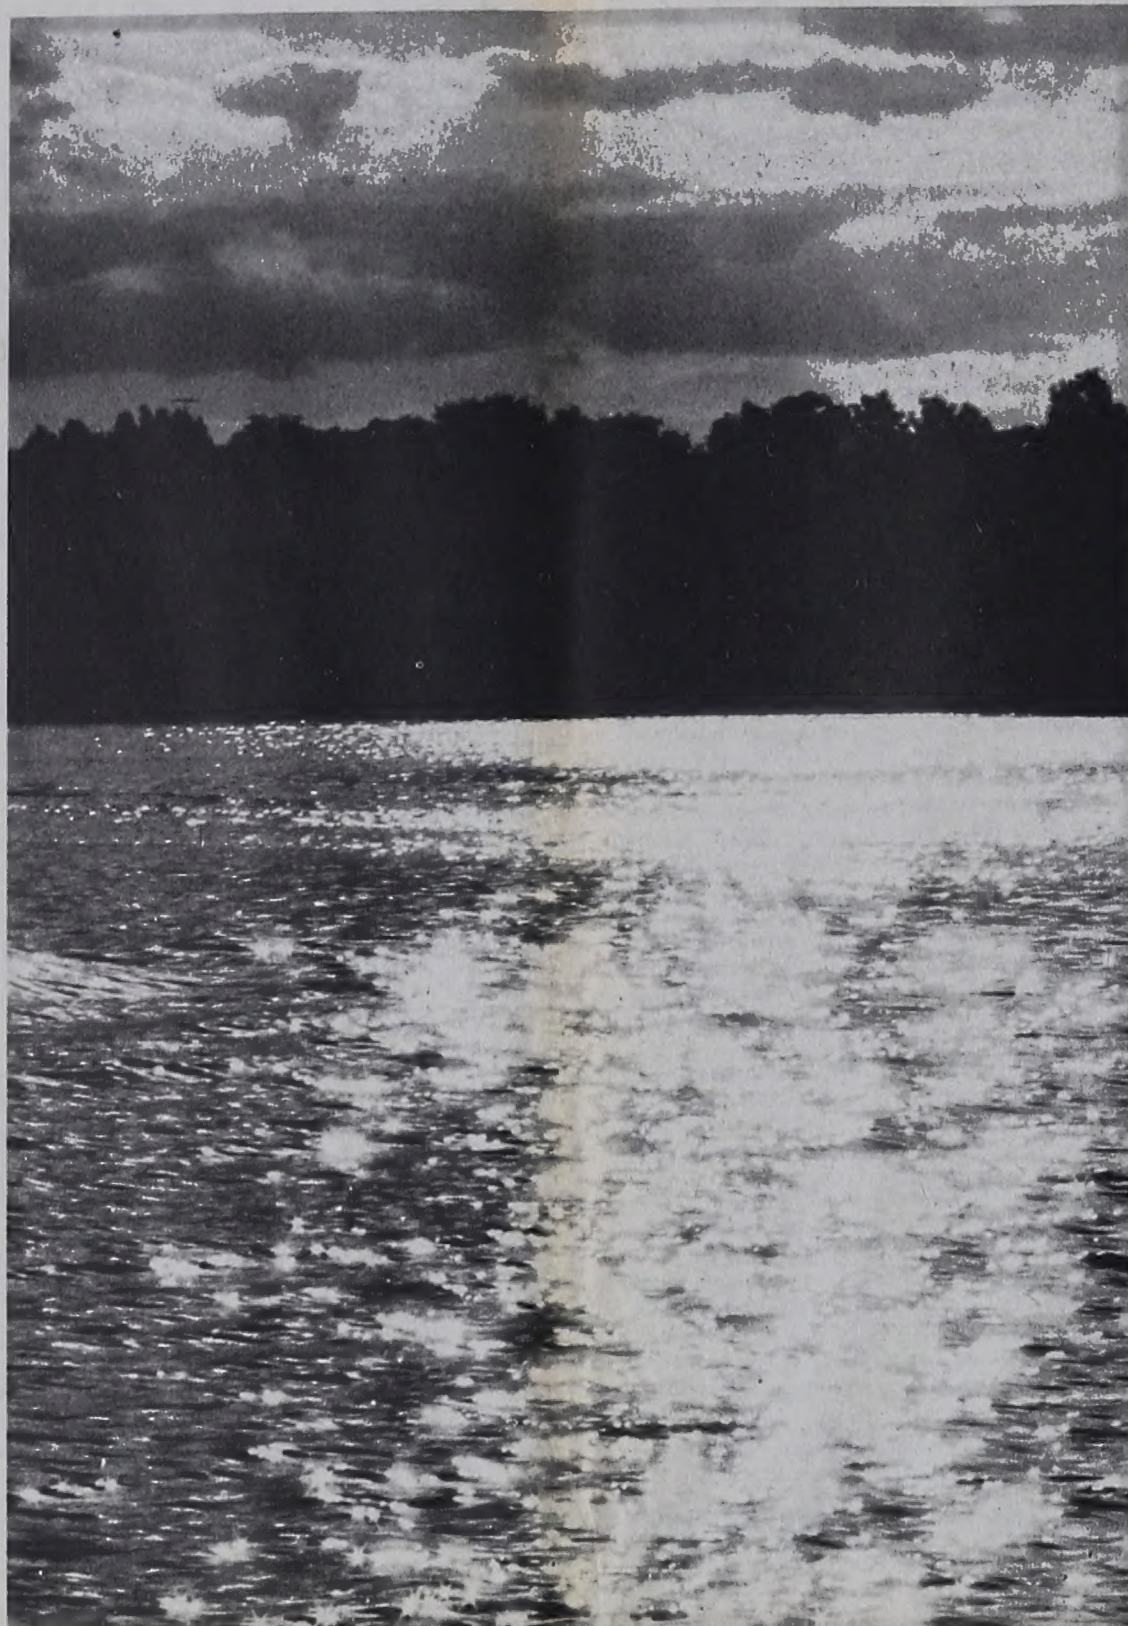

The rotarians should be congratulated for continuing to upgrade the carnival instead of allowing it to deteriorate into a monotonous event.

Write a letter

Are you interested in your community? Are you concerned about its future? Are you irked by a council decision, frustrated with inflation and taxes, worried about where the world is headed? Why not get it off your chest through a letter to the editor. The letters to the editor column is a public forum and you're invited to use it as often as you like.

All we ask is that you sign your letter, and that you couch your criticisms and observations in language that is publically (and legally) acceptable.

So why not have your say? Your views may point the way to important changes.

Haliburton Lake Area.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Your editorial and lead article in the Echo of August 4 is hopelessly inaccurate and sounds more like the things you would read in the National Enquirer rather than in a reputable local paper.

As Fire Warden for the Haliburton Lake area I was informed that there was a fire at 8:20 a.m. on Tuesday, July 27 and drove to the scene to assess the situation. The fire was being contained by local cottagers at this time. I then came back to the marina and picked up the cottagers' association fire pump and hoses and took these back to the scene by boat. This equipment was set up and running by 9:35 a.m.

The Ministry of Natural Resources fire crew arrived from Minden at 10:30 a.m. and supervised the firefighting until 1:15 p.m. when the fire was then out.

The Haliburton volunteer fire department was advised by me that they could not get a pumper truck within half a mile of the fire and that the fire was under control. The secondary fires that broke out under very suspicious circumstances were contained very quickly and I was on hand to supervise each of them.

At no time during this fire was any cottage in danger.

Your criticism of the Haliburton Volunteer Fire Department, the Ministry of Natural Resources and myself as a fire warden is inexcusable and can do nothing but harm. The fire was controlled and extinguished in a very professional manner and the fact that the secondary fires were of a very suspicious nature and were probably set can in no way reflect on the ability of the fire fighters.

I would strongly suggest that you get accurate facts before reporting incidents of this type.

To answer some of the specific points in your editorial, I would point out that the job of the Haliburton Volunteer Fire Department is to protect property and lives: at no time were either property or lives in danger during this fire and I advised the fire department of this fact.

The Ministry of Natural Resources did not take three hours to respond. I was at the scene of the fire as a Ministry of Natural Resources fire warden within twenty minutes of the call being received by the Minden office and had the fire under control within two hours. A brush fire does not spread quickly in a hardwood stand of trees.

In conclusion I would say that the job of a reporter is to get facts from the people directly concerned with the fire. Did you contact the local fire warden? Did you contact the Ministry of Natural Resources fire fighting chief for this area? Were you on hand while the fire was burning? I

To the Editor:

I find it hard to realize that in your lead article in Wednesday, August 4's Echo that you were talking about the Dysart fire department.

As president of the Kennis Lake Cottage Owner's Association for the past ten years we have received adequate help at all times from the Dysart Fire Department.

Fire Chief Roberts is very concerned for the safety of our community and keeps his force at a high peak of efficiency. They are very highly rated by Ontario Fire Marshall's Office.

As it takes 40 minutes to get to Kennis Lake - we purchased two fire pumps, back packs, and chemical extinguishers under the supervision of Chief Roberts who trained and supervises our year round fire fighters.

Resultingly we take care of our own needs, but when extra help is occasionally needed, the Dysart Fire Department gets out quickly to assist us.

Our Association commends Fire Chief Roberts and the Dysart fire department for their quick service, courtesy, consideration and helpfulness at all times.

We are fortunate in the Dysart area to have such a fine fire department led by a man of such high calibre.

To the Editor:

With summer in full force and many fruits and vegetables ripening, I was once again witness to individuals picking berries along areas that were sprayed by both the Ministry of Transportation and Communications and Ontario Hydro.

The spray used by these people (probably 2,4,D), is, like most herbicides, highly toxic.

The fact that herbicides are absorbed by the plant and remain in it are the same properties that insure the eventual destruction of the plant. Whether the plant was sprayed in the same year the berries were picked may have little or no bearing on it's toxicity.

People exposed to 2,4,D may develop fatigue, nausea, vomiting, loss of appetite, diarrhea, swelling and aching of muscles, muscle tremors, blurred vision, headaches and skin rashes.

Our committee advises no one to pick or eat berries or walk through areas that have been sprayed with any herbicide, this includes road allowances and hydro lines.

There is an old saying around these parts that when the Rotary Clubs summer parade comes down the street in Haliburton the first Wednesday in August that the tourist season is on the way down. We don't know whether this is always true but we do know that the 1982 Haliburton Rotary Carnival is now history. It's all over for another year and in summing up the results it was a fantastic success both financially and from a spectator's point of view. We have been in or taken part in every Haliburton Rotary Club summer parade since it started in 1944. Many have also seen them all. We have to agree with many of our readers that the 1982 version ranks with many of the outstanding parades we have seen through the years. The floats were of very high quality and the four bands were outstanding. Many spectators wondered who the bands were supplying the music for the parade. They were the Haliburton Legion Pipe Band, Bancroft Legion Pipe Band, The Canadian Knights Drum Corps Band from Peterborough and our own local Dieland Band. If there was a sad feature to pick from the parade it would have to be lack of interest shown by the local lodges and resorts in the area. Only a handful of lodges took the time to enter a float and we can remember in years gone by practically every lodge and resort in the immediate area were in this parade. Possibly we will see better results from this sector in next year's parade. The Water World Water Ski show presented on Thursday evening on Head Lake was well attended with cars and spectators lined from the government dock right down to the first crossing. Many of the people who viewed the water display were a little disappointed pointing out that it was not nearly as good as the one that was presented a year ago. The Haliburton Rotary Carnival and parade presented each year is becoming a tradition or you might say a homecoming affair when many of the former residents of the village take this opportunity to come back home to visit their friends and relatives, look over the old town and take in the carnival. Financially, we understand this year's event was by far the biggest money maker in the local Rotary Club's history. They talk of a recession but there was little or no signs of it at the carnival. Even the draw tickets on the car going for $10 a ticket were sold out long before it was time for the draw. As always you can rest assured that the Rotary Club will put this money to good use helping out the community and disabled children. Now the local club will see what changes and what new attractions it can provide next year.

Ray G. Raymond of Scarborough, Ontario will be the guest speaker when the Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship in Canada holds it's monthly dinner meeting at the Royal Canadian Legion in Haliburton on Friday, August 20. Ray Raymond is a businessman who committed his life to Jesus Christ in Florida in 1973 and later was baptized with the Holy Spirit. God has wonderfully delivered Ray from alcohol and tobacco. His testimony also shows forgiveness in the area of murdered brothers and daughter. He has testified on 100 Huntley Street, Good News, FGBMF Chapters and churches. Ray will share God's healing power in his life.

The time has come when the Ontario Hydro will have to step in and stop people from nailing signs to the poles. We have always understood this was against the law and we would like to see some action in this regard. Some people seem to have the idea they can nail promotional matter on any target they see. Some store windows are plastered with these signs and these storefronts remind you of a side show at a circus. If people want to advertise they should be doing it in the newspaper. That's what we are here for.

The August Civic Holiday will be observed in the Municipality of Dysart et al and the Townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden on Monday, September 20.

Mrs. Patricia Shaw of R.R.2, Haliburton paid tribute to the late Pauline Brohm in the following letter that she sent us last week. "Haliburton lost a lovely lady on August 2, 1982 with the passing of Pauline Brohm. I only knew Mrs. Brohm on a customer-proprietor basis, but whenever I went into the store, which was quite often, she always had a kind word and a cheery smile. She will be missed, not only by the local people, but by our summer residents as well. I'm sure many people join me in extending to Bob and his family heartfelt sympathy. It was a pleasure to know her."

All those who helped with the Haliburton Rotary Carnival are being invited for dinner at the regular meeting of the local Rotary Club to be held at the United Church at Haliburton Thursday night.

Sunday was Decoration Day at the Evergreen Cemetery in Haliburton and we certainly were pleased to see that the local cemetery is being kept in a very clean and neat condition.

Our congratulations to Gary Vasey whose horse, Haliburton Huskie, has come in first in the two races that he was entered in at Woodbine in Toronto. This must be some horse and one can easily see that Haliburton Huskie has winner written all over it. We will be watching with anticipation to see the results of the next race that this up and coming horse is entered in.

Miriam Ouellette of Haliburton was the winner of the 1982 Chevrolet Camaro at the draw held at the Rotary Carnival in Haliburton last Thursday night.

Pic of the Past

When the Stanhope Airport Committee present their 1982 Air Show and Beef Barbecue this coming Sunday, August 15 you can rest assured that you will be treated to a great show with plenty to eat at the beef barbecue. The above photo will take you back to one of the earlier Stanhope Fly-Ins with three of the hard working organizers at that time from the left: Ken Whitney, George Pratt and Sinc Nesbitt, who at that time was Reeve of the Township of Stanhope. In the background you can see some of the crowd and some of the aircraft in attendance that day.

Highlands Weather Reports Appreciated

A project initiated for the Chamber by Elgin Stouffer of Stanhope is being utilized by at least six radio stations and hopefully more will take advantage of it shortly. Weather reports on conditions in the Highlands are prepared twice daily by Elgin and taped on an answering device. The recorded message is received when the toll free number installed for this purpose is called by the radio station and they can play it back over the air at their convenience.

Stations presently making use of the service are C.K.L.Y. in Lindsay, C.H.U.M. in Toronto, C.K.O.C. and C.H.M.L. in Hamilton, and C.K.K.W. and C.F.C.A. in Kitchener. One of these stations reported to us that they had received some favourable comments from listeners about this service and it occurred to me that a note from some of you to any of the above stations would help to encourage them to continue the broadcast of our messages. Let them know we appreciate their cooperation.

Publicity In The "Daily Racing Form"

An article forwarded to us written by Wally Wood in the August 4 edition of the Racing Form is entitled "Haliburton Huskie Learning Quickly". It is not about one of our local hockey players, but a feature story on a two year old gelding that had just won the Bull Page Stakes. Haliburton Huskie is owned by Gary Vasey in partnership with Marge Magnusson whose husband Glenn is the trainer. The naming of the horse is in line with Gary's previous decision to name one of the horses Minden Monarch after the two local hockey teams he has been involved with. He and Don Finn have also named horses after local lakes such as Kennisiss and Kushog and also raced one called Haliburton Boy. They also used the Haliburton Tartan as their racing colours.

Haliburton Huskie may well be one of the greatest horses Gary has yet been involved with according to the promise he is now showing. He is scheduled to run next in the $50,000 added Vandal Stakes in Fort Erie on August 14 and may go to Winnipeg for the six furlong Futurity which is worth over $40,000 to the winner. Let's hope we continue to see headlines about Haliburton Huskie.

Acid Rain Battle Get's A Boost

We have among our members an American friend by the name of George Barna who spends his summers at the Haliburton Forest Reserve. George has a consulting firm called G. Barna Recreational Travel Services and he dropped us off a copy of an article that had been printed in a magazine called "Sports Afield" about Acid Rain. This is an American publication with wide readership and George had written a note on the corner to indicate he had distributed over 1,000 of these articles in the United States.

One of the biggest problems we have in dealing with this problem in the U.S. is the lack of awareness by the bulk of their population and it is most gratifying to see that in spite of President Reagan's efforts, the message is getting out. The article is an excellent one which explains the problem and the possible solutions in very basic terms.

In the article an Acid Rain Test Kit is described which they are making available to their readers at a nominal cost of $2.95 each plus postage. The kit allows the individual to test their own lake or drinking water for acidity and includes report cards to be sent back to the publisher. The results should prove to be very effective ammunition for those lobbying in Washington.

Our thanks to Sports Afield and George Barna for spreading the word on this important issue.

Report from Parliament

by Bill Scott, MP

Since Pierre Elliott Trudeau assumed the reigns of control as Prime Minister in 1968 it has been his inclination to reduce the role of parliament in governing the country.

On several occasions he has ridiculed parliament by his actions and his statements. The number of laws, regulations and appointments made by Order-In-Council has grown disproportionately in the Trudeau era (57 per cent from 1968 - 81). It is obviously less troublesome to him and his Ministers to operate this way, as they do not have to listen to any differing opinions. They choose to forget the fact that MP's from all regions of the country are elected to make sure that every single act of the ruling government is in the best interests of the majority of Canadians.

Liberal MP's are deemed to be the responsible, not necessarily representative, delegates of all the people. Never mind the fact that west of Ontario only one constituency believes a Liberal should be their man in Ottawa.

This has, over the years, caused the growth of several western separatist parties. As well, Trudeau's high-handed methods have caused the growth of the Quebec separatist party of Rene

To Whom It May Concern:

Since 1976 the Chamber has presented a "Highlander of the Year" Award at their annual meeting in October. The award is presented to someone who has "made an outstanding contribution to the economic, civic, or social welfare of our County." At this time we would like to call on your assistance in providing nominations for this honour.

Past winners of the award are as follows:

1976 - Roy Bates, known at the time as "Mr. Snowmobiler" who spearheaded the formation of the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association which was responsible for the establishment of many of our trails and much of our winter business.

1977 - Gary Agnew, who served as both reeve and deputy-reeve of Monmouth and was very instrumental in creating the high spirit of cooperation that makes a success of their many community events.

1978 - Len Salvatori was recognized for his many years of dedication to the youth of our community. He has served on the School Board since its inception and with cubs and scouts and minor hockey year after year.

1979 - Carole Finn was honoured for her years of service to the Guild of Fine Arts and in particular the effort she put into establishing and opening the Rails' End Gallery.

1980 - Art Ward has done more for tourism than most people in Ontario and in so doing has put Haliburton Highlands on the map. Much of this county's success in this segment of the economy is attributed to his efforts.

1981 - Brad Robinson can take much of the credit for Dorset becoming a "must" stop for bus tours and visitors travelling through the area. He has worked diligently to promote Dorset far and wide and his own establishment is so unique it was chosen last year as "Canada's Best Country Store" by Today Magazine.

We hope that you and your colleagues can be of some assistance in helping us name the next Highlander. If so would you please write a brief resume of the individual you are nominating and submit it to the Chamber prior to September 1, 1982 for consideration.

Hard work and dedication deserves recognition. Thank you for helping us to do so.

President, Haliburton Highlands
Chamber of Commerce

To the Editor:

The greatest favour that you have done for Haliburton Lodge is the printing of the critical letter in your July 21 issue. When I read your correspondent's statements, I was astonished that any establishment could remain in operation if there was even a trace of credibility in them. Therefore, I was compelled to visit Haliburton Lodge to confirm them on July 25.

I was accompanied by my parents who were 16 year guests of a local resort and are seeking an alternative.

We found the grounds and all main buildings to be clean and in good repair. The cabins are exactly as represented by the advertising. The main lounge and dining room are spacious, tastefully furnished and clean.

We made a point of avoiding the owners and talked with the staff. They were most complimentary of their employers and conditions at Haliburton Lodge.

In short, Haliburton Lodge appears to be a credit to this community. I am doing everything possible to dispell the cloud of suspicion which you have cast over Haliburton Lodge by your irresponsible publication of unfounded statements. Your publication has hurt all those of this area who rely upon tourism for a livelihood.

The lack of a beach and a sauna has been dealt with factually by Mr. Stinson (July 28) and requires no further comment except to state that the beach is now above water and quite substantial.

As I began, so I end; the greatest favour that you have done is print the criticism. My parents and two other couples are hoping that they can get a two week reservation at Haliburton Lodge in August, 1983.

A recent copy of the "Mineralogical Record" shows just how significant that part of our County is when you consider the variety of fine mineral specimens available there. Beachli team takes victory

Squad took control in first inning, stayed on top

One game rounded out the regular play in the Haliburton men's recreational softball play this week. Beachli Construction defeated Curry Motors 10 to 3.

Curry's took to the plate first, but their efforts went unrewarded.

Beachli's team didn't miss the opportunity to capitalize on their competitors' no run situation and marked three runs on the scoreboard. Dave Nicholls made it to first safely on a one-base hit and progressed to second on a safe hit from Kevin Sisson. Mark Schell brought Nicholls in with a double and put Sisson in a scoring position. John Wilson was a sacrifice out to bring Sisson across the plate. John Robinson was put out on a tight play from the pitcher to first base, but Schell made the distance to home plate. That ended the team's first inning runs.

Curry's team made a comeback in the second inning with Barry Boice and John Parish chalking up the points.

With only a one-run lead, Beachli's squad was unable to break away in the bottom half of the inning. However, the Curry team was held back for the next two innings as the foes accumulated more runs.

In the third inning, Nicholls, Schell, Robinson and Pete Fearrey were the successful runners.

Now trailing by five runs in the top of the fifth inning, Curry Motors made a slight comeback, but the solo run scored by Chris Cowen did little to alleviate the loss.

The game ended at the bottom of the fifth inning as Schell, Wilson and Robinson added three points to the construction gang's score.

Playoff games are now scheduled.

Bass tournament held

The annual David Brind Jr. Memorial Bass Tournament, held at Elephant Lake Lodge was won by a woman for the first time, last week.

Susan Grumer, 28 of Easton Pennsylvania, caught a four pound, seven ounce largemouth bass to take the top honours in the week-long tournament. She was presented with a trophy by David Brind Sr. and her name will be engraved on the lodge's plaque. Her prize catch will also be mounted on a wall plaque.

Of the 16 fishermen in the tournament, Grumer was the only woman registered. To qualify, the fish had to be caught in Baptiste or Elephant Lake or the York River.

The closest fish in competition to Grumer's lunger was a three pound, 10 ounce catch.

this year.

Rabies, which is spread by infected animals, continues to be a serious problem in Ontario.

It is of special concern in built up areas where domestic and wild animals can infect children who come in contact with them.

Children should be warned to avoid stray pets, as well as wild animals, especially if they appear sick or friendly because these usually are signs that they are rabid.

Pets should be regularly vaccinated, leashed, and kept indoors at night. You can help to control rabies by reporting to your local police, humane society or health unit any pets or wild animals which are acting strangely.

Do not handle your pet with bare hands immediately after it has fought with a rabid animal. Do not touch dead animals. Seek advice from a veterinarian. Contact your doctor or health unit immediately if your child or pet comes in contact with wild animals.

If you would like to know more about rabies write for a free copy of our pamphlet, ANIMALS, RABIES AND YOU from the Ontario Health Resource Centre, Health Promotion and Information Branch, 9th Floor, Hepburn Block, Queen's Park, Toronto, Ontario M7A 1S2.

Report from Parliament

Levesque to a point where the very existence of the country is threatened, as they do not feel they have any input.

Fortunately, in my years as MP for this riding, I have on many occasions had my faith restored in the operation of parliament. It is the only forum in which the government is forced to participate.

In parliament they must at least make an attempt to answer the questions brought to them by the MP's of other parties who are legitimately representing the concerns of their constituents.

A number of specific examples of major changes made to proposed legislation forced by the Opposition in parliament come to mind.

In last fall's constitution debate it was clear that the government did not intend to seriously consider the concerns of the provincial governments in its efforts to bring home the Canadian constitution. The efforts of the Opposition in forcing them to listen to the express desires of Canadians resulted in the Federal-Provincial conferences where agreement between the two levels of government was reached.

This spring, the government tried to violate the very traditions of Parliament by asking it to pass an omnibus energy bill. This bill contained many new pieces of law and changed many others. In the format it was introduced, it would have been impossible to discuss every aspect of it in the time the government wanted.

Once again, the efforts of the Opposition forced the government to change the bill to allow a considered debate on all aspects in response to the wishes of Canadians. The methods we were forced to use were not favoured by all but unfortunately Trudeau did not have enough respect for the institution of parliament to convince his Minister of Energy to present the bills in their proper form and we were left with little alternative.

More recently, on July 19, in the miscellaneous estimates committee studying bill C-124, the opposition representatives questioned President of the Treasury Board, Johnston. They asked who would be governed by the six per cent public service pay rate increase limit suggested by the budget.

The response was that most public servants would be but that in some management categories, a performance bonus of up to 15 per cent would still be available above and beyond the six per cent. If this had not been raised at the committee level of Bill C-124 the application of public service wage control would have been grossly unfair to those not in these management levels.

On July 20 the Cabinet met and, having been forced to deal with the issue, decided to rescind pay performance bonuses for the lifetime of the controls program.

The greatest and most recent victory achieved by the Opposition for parliament and for Canadians involved Bill C-125. This Act was to provide supplemental borrowing authority to the government for $11 billion. This would have given them authority to borrow a total of $21 billion this year when they needed only $17 billion. Our Party proposed an amendment that would give them $5 billion with provisions to approve the rest if needed.

Why, after all, should our tax dollars be paying for the interest on a loan which was twice as large as necessary? An agreement was struck that limited the additional borrowing authority to $7 billion giving the government the right to borrow up to their stated financial requirements only with provisions allowing them to bring in an additional bill if their predictions of $17 billion again are in error.

Three days of debate will be necessary on such a new bill.

It is gratifying to see that despite Trudeau's every effort parliament retains at least a part of its sovereignty over the bureaucracy.

The thirty-third session of parliament has ended. It was the longest session in recent times lasting from 1980 until now.

The last year in particular has seen a dramatic failure of the governing Liberal party. At a time when the economy of the country is in a drastic recession they refuse to take any positive action to help Canadians weather the storm. Instead of trying to lower interest rates and ease the burden of taxation they twice brought in budgets which fanned the fire of inflation and caused the dollar to drop to record lows on the U.S. market.

The June 28 budget fiasco was the final blow of a tired administration, bankrupt of ideas. The reaction to the budget was so negative that the Liberals had to create a news agency called the "Good News Bureau". It was designed to circulate to Liberal M.P.'s only good news about the economy and their performance. Apparently they are afraid of the effect of reality upon their backbenchers.

In the area of housing policy coming out of that budget, no one is sure what was said yet. The Minister of Public Works and the Prime Minister still seem to disagree on whether or not a mortgage deductibility scheme will be put in place. This has caused so much confusion that the public has no confidence in the programs now in place. Only 33 applications have been processed for the Canada Mortgage and Housing's Canadian Home Ownership Stimulation Program, a far cry from the projected 8,300 per month. With only 251 applications for the program it is obviously not going to generate the 50,000 construction jobs predicted. The lack of implementation details for the mortgage deductibility scheme such as when it will apply and high interest rates are blamed for the lack of response. Surely the Government could have foreseen these problems. The committee studying the proposal is talking of an interest deferral scheme rather than a straight mortgage deduction plan. I hope the Minister of Public Works can remember the response he had to his Mortgage Renewal Interest Deferral Plan. It was such a disaster that he had to remove the deferral part of the plan in the June budget.

This Government has lost the confidence of the Canadian people. Every move they make now is in an attempt to save face. No one believes in their sincerity and only a change in administration can bring us back from the precipice we find ourselves upon.

Farm News and Views

Rules Affecting Farm Employees

Several farmers have recently asked us about the various regulations governing the hiring of employees on a farm.

The Ministry of Agriculture and Food has two good fact sheets on this subject.

One is entitled Paying Wages to Farm Employees, and the second one is titled Family Members As Wage Earners. Copies of these are available free from any county agricultural office.

The biggest question is regarding minimum wages. There are two different answers to this question.

There is no minimum wage for persons employed on a farm to help produce eggs, milk, grain, seeds, fruit, vegetables, maple products, honey, tobacco, pigs, cattle, sheep or poultry.

However, a person who is employed in the harvesting of fruits, vegetables or tobacco must be paid at least the minimum wage. The minimum wage at present is $3.50 per hour, or if the employee is a student under 18 years of age, the minimum wage is $2.65 per hour.

The other main area of concern deals with unemployment insurance, workmen's compensation, and other government payment programmes.

The rules governing these plans vary somewhat.

Workmen's Compensation must be paid by every farmer who has employees; regardless of how old they are. A member of the farmer's family or a relative, is considered to be an employee, if a stated wage is being paid. This provision does not apply to a farmer's spouse.

Unemployment Insurance must be paid by both the employer and employee. There are a few exemptions, those which could affect a farmer are: if the employee is 65 years old or over, if the employee is a dependent of the farmer's or where the employee works less than 25 days per year, or receives less than $250 in cash payment in a year.

Canada Pension Plan deductions are made for all employees except those under 18 years of age, or over 70 years of age. Again, a farm employee who works less than 25 days a year or receives less than $250 cash payment in a year is exempted.

Every employer is to deduct income tax from an employee's wages. Free room and/or board is a taxable benefit, so must be given a value which is included in calculating the tax deduction.

If an employee completes a

TD1 form, certifying that their total income for the year will be less than the basic personal exemption, then income tax deductions do not have to be made by the employer.

When a farmer employs his own children he has to be aware of how much they earn, depending on their age, as it could affect whether or not they will still be classified as dependents.

The various regulations governing farmers hiring help on a part-time or full-time basis tend to be confusing. Get a copy of the factsheets on this subject, they will certainly help you to understand the rules.

Sap Beetle Problems

Sap beetles are extremely plentiful this year. These beetles, sometimes called picnic beetles, are black with cream markings. They can be found near anything which is sweet, and raspberries are a popular target at the present time.

Sap beetles are not a direct pest on fruit or vegetable crops, that is, they do not cause any initial injury. Rather they infest damaged fruit, or as in the case of raspberries, they move to harvested fruit as soon as it is picked.

There is no chemical spray

Rotary Carnival breaks all records

The Haliburton rotary carnival, held last Wednesday and Thursday was the most financially successful event in the club's history.

While the midway and dances drew big crowds, the traditional parade down main street was still a highlight of the two-day event.

Prizes were awarded in many categories but the best entry in the parade went to Eagle Lake General Store. The top three winners in the best girls and boys groups were Haliburton Scout Reserve, Camp Wanakita and Camp Illahee. The best entrants in the commercial category were Emmerson Lumber and Building Supplies, Haliburton Marine and Newbatt's Appliances. The best lodge floats were Wig-a-Mog Inn, Birch Point Lodge and Locarno-on-the-Lake. Winners in the special entry category were Sinclair Nesbitt, Extendicare and Water Safety. The best individual entries were Haliburton ambulance and Haliburton Marine's comic. The best decorated bicycles in the parade were Jason Goodall, Danny Connaughan, Lianne Scheffee, Noelle LaRue and Daneille LaRue. The Haliburton Legion Pipe Band, the Bancroft Legion Pipe Band and the Canadian Knights Drum Corps Band from Peterborough participated in the parade.

Miriam Ouellette, of Haliburton, won the 1982 Chevrolet Camaro. The seller of the ticket was Rotarian Don Popple and the winning ticket, number 1809 was drawn by David Marcus of Thornhill.

Sue Cooper and Donna Brohm*

Wig-a-Mog Inn's entry won the best lodge float in the parade on Wednesday evening. Carnival chairman, Art Dawson presented the staff of the Inn with a trophy and $40 prize Friday evening. The staff then gave the money back to the Rotary Club for use at the Five Counties Children's Centre in Peterborough. The Inn management, Art and Joan Ward, matched the prize money and guests at the lodge donated another $40 towards the children's centre. The Five Counties Children's Centre is a project of the Rotary Club.

FAMILY

The Dixie Land Ambassadors played in the Head Lake Park bandshell in Haliburton village as part of the Rotary carnival Thursday evening. Although the large crowd was intrigued with the waterski show on the lake, the group's music drifted over the park providing accompaniment for the show.

Happy Gang News

by Watson Anderson

The soil in our flower gardens is still powdery dry except those beds that have had much watering. None of the plants show any wilt. The string trellis is really doing its stuff. Morning glories are putting on a good show every morning supplemented by scarlet runners whose blossoms color the building face. Tuesday morning we will be picking what will be a cupful of podded peas. That should do for a table of eight a nice snack for each but there are seven such tables that will stretch it pretty slim for each diner. There will be none for the staff unless expropriated.

Jan Shipley conducted the Happy Gang choir for their practice Monday morning. She was pianist, tutor, and soloist. We are grateful to Jan for this effort. On our walk Monday we came to a couple of children leap frogging: a quite cute form of locomotion and fun at about the rate of a walk. If grown ups in Haliburton start it it may be a way to encourage more tourism. Haliburton must be unique because as we previously mentioned that the Millers of Park Street gave us some 4 o'clock plants and while away we enquired at various florists and gardens if we could see some of their hour o'clock plants and to our surprise discovered that they never heard of them. Fancy that for one upmanship!

At Tuesday's bingo, volunteer helpers Betty Wise and Helen Archer made the game run smoothly. Ray Smith called the numbers and did a very good job for us. Every bingo gets a prize that has to be scrounged by activity director Ivy Shaw. Everything is running remarkably smooth, as compared to the world wide economy and politics. The pea picking turned out better than we expected so that instead of one cup we got three, that should give everyone a modest serving. This reminds us of the use of those huge burdock plants as green manure. Pound for pound it is equal to the store chemical as fertilizer. From a tiny seed in the spring it amasses a lot of weight by scrounging in the soil for nutrients even in a gravel pit. Pack it in a hole in a flower bed and you will see its effect for a long time.

There is now that modern scourge that is written about by most journals and periodicals, even Time, called herpes. It is mentioned not because it may pertain to Haliburton, far from it but to note that Paracelsus, the first physician of record 2000 years ago, even before St. Luke, who advised his patients to stay indoors. Apparently it nose dived then emerging just recently to infect 30 million Americans and an untold number of Canadians. It is said to be incurable but something took it away then so why not now.

We are sorry to report the death of Maud Weston, a very nice lady (prim and proper as all nice ladies are). She will be sadly missed.

Bert McKelvey, a sadly handicapped member of our gang, died August 3. We all feel that the time is coming when such handicaps are preventable, except those that are the result of violence and motor vehicle accidents.

The Happy Gang is pleased to report the admission of Edna Sue, one of the Sue ladies of Highland Grove. Already she appears to enjoy being a member.

The prize ticket on the recent ladies down quilt was won by Betty Salvatori and the tickets sold grossed the Happy Gang $186.00. Thanks!

Wednesday was the famed Haliburton Rotary parade for the promotion of neighbourhood fun. The Happy Gang had an entry featuring a lovely team of horses Dale and Dina Main who pulled a wagon featuring a washerwoman, tub, washboard and herself. Ivy Shaw, Ray Smith and Harold McKelvey manipulated a cross cut saw and Hazel Parish did the churning. Behind rode the flower girl, Alice Hartle, on her flower bedecked tricycle pushed by two lovely volunteer ladies, Carey and Katie Tashlin. The Main team was driven by teamsters Bert and Steve Main. For all of this fun Alice Hartle won second prize (we do not know why it wasn't first) enriching the Happy Gang's treasury by $15.00. Thanks to everyone!

Rev. John Smith, pastor of Lakeside Baptist Church in Haliburton, and May Ward, pianist, conducted the devotional period Friday morning. The theme was taken from Exodus 3, verse 1 on: about the burning bush. Just imagine you were Moses, an elderly man of 80, his life's work over, taking a walk in a sheep pasture suddenly sees a bush burning (it could be a burdock) and yet it was not being consumed. Students experience teaching problems

Now I know how it feels to be a full-fledged teacher. A state of panic hits as the big concerts approach. It's just two more weeks until The Triple M's appear live in Minden on Sunday, August 22, and then the following week, Sunday, August 29, in Haliburton in the bandshell. The Dixieland Ambassadors will also be appearing with the Triple M's on these dates. It's going to be a great show so we hope all will come out and give us support.

Be sure to come out and hear the infamous Dixieland Ambassadors on Friday, August 13 from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. at the Minden sale.

There was a good turnout this week for crafts, drama, and sing-song. The weather permitted the activities to be held outside. Wednesday rabbits were made out of old socks. The socks were stuffed with nylons and decorated with felt. Friday the children covered round spotlights with strips of newspaper and paste to make paper-mache faces. The faces varied from such characters as E.T. to Pinocchio.

Marilyn Thayer was enthusiastically welcomed by the children. They love to perform for small crowds and act out their favourite commercials. The drama workshop takes place in the bandshell located in Head Lake Park. Any children are invited to come join us in the park on Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 1-4 p.m.

Senior League

by Bert Harrison

A very nice service was held in the Chapel Sunday night. Mrs. Thompson led the singing and playing. Harold read the lesson, and offered prayer. Rev. Burgess took his text from John 3, verse 18. "Let us not love in word nor tongue, but in deed and in truth."

Monday being a holiday, we had no fun and fitness. No movies Monday night for us kids to watch, but some elderly folks came, and took us out to play. So after all a very pleasant day.

Father Elliott held communion service in the chapel August 3, assisted by Joan Waters, who says she is a grandmother, by the way.

Mrs. Curry spent a nice week-end with her family, grandchildren, and friends.

Well, our gazebo is complete, all we need is chairs. When we get settled in we sure will put on airs.

Tuesday night Earl Cooper and Kathy came along, with Earl's dear wife. Earl plays different instruments, including fiddle, and fife. They entertained us for one hour or more. We thank them for coming away from the Green Lake shores.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Les McGuire to Hyland Crest. We hope they will like it here, we're sure they'll fare the best.

We watched three real interesting movies Tuesday afternoon. Doris goes to all the trouble to get these nice movies, and either she or Linda stay and put them on for our entertainment, yet so few are interested enough to bother coming to watch them.

The A.C.W. ladies from Maple Lake brought us a lovely lunch Thursday afternoon, and served it so nicely we played them some tunes. Carrie Drysdale and Linda danced A-coming through the rye. Then Alfred Richardson and Linda came forth and danced to the tune of the "Cock-of-the-North", then sang "Home on the Range" and "You are my Sunshine". Doris corded on the piano, Bert on the mouth organ, and we had a jolly time.

Ted Carr is doing something new, which really tests his brain. They have got him making a real model train.

While Jack Shaw is on holidays, Pat Ackerblade is filling in. We all like Pat, she has the cutest grin.

Bingo was put on Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Petney and helpers from Home Hardware. Mrs. Curry won eight bingos, so I guess she won her share.

Ida Schell, and Ethel Boice were both taken to hospitals Friday. We hope they won't have to stay too long.

Every Friday afternoon at 2:30 Mrs. Coburn, across the way, comes in, and doesn't even knock - leads us in a sing-song, tells some funny jokes. Fred Ballard came today, the organ keys he pokes. He can play organ music that is simply grand. Don't you think we should give them a real good hand? There is no end to the joy life brings.

Sunshine, songs, birds, and growing things. But there is no joy that quite compares. To the handclasp of a friend who cares.

DISTRICT NEWS

Kinmount Korner

by Millie Moss

First of all, my apologies re the lack of a column last week. Thanks to all who phoned asking why. I did write but forgot the post office would be closed over the holiday week-end so obviously my column reached the Echo office too late for printing. I will try to remember in the future!

I am sorry to hear baby John Hills was in hospital this past week, also Ruth Menard and Candy and Faith Crego were taken to hospital Wednesday evening but released. They were suffering from some form of virus accompanied by severe headaches. Ada and Bert Bowrin were also in hospital as of last week. We sincerely hope all are back home and well soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Bone of Maple are current guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bowman, RRI, Kinmount.

Results of the St. Patrick's euchre party, Tuesday, August 3: men's high: Danny Pappas, men's low: R. Holbrook, ladies' high: Nora Crego, ladies' low: Margaret Kylie and most lone hands: Win Wilson. There were eight tables of players.

I was invited to get involved with a group of ladies who held a yard sale at Norland over the long week-end. It was a "first" for me and it was tiring but fun. There were lots of like-minded people because it seems everywhere you looked there were yard, lawn and garage sales. The Bill Wilson's teamed up with other friends in Kinmount and held a very successful sale. Sorry I missed it folks but I was kind of tied up myself.

There have been a rash of "nasties" recently, in the Crystal Lake area. A number of boats tied up with ropes and one which was chained, were untied and drifting up the river unattended. Did the persons responsible stop to think someone could have been killed by that boat or didn't it matter? Then, a number of gas cans on the pier were filled up with water. That could do someone's engine a lot of harm. Another boat, engine and gas cans were taken away and deposited elsewhere, unharmed but nevertheless gave someone a bit of worry and added work. What gets into people? It can't be the heat because I for one, don't feel that summer is here yet and it's definitely on the way out.

Tuesday, July 27 was a busy and happy time at the home of Florence and Percy Sherman. Guests were Oscar and Betty Cobin, their daughter Debbie and son Earl of Tessier, Saskatchewan, May Doherty of Lindsay and her sister Audrey Bryant of New Zealand. May and Audrey's parents are the late Charles and May Doherty of Kinmount where they resided at St. Patrick's Rectory many years ago. I'm sure many seniors will remember them.

I'm glad to hear Gladys

Silver is home from hospital.

Irene McNamara enjoyed a trip to Blind River recently, with son Hugh of Fenelon Falls. They visited elderly aunts of Irene's; Lola and Ruby Dunbar who were Kinmount residents years ago. The ladies returned with the McNamara clan and enjoyed visits with old friends, sang in the Sunday School Choir, attended the church where both had been baptized. They stayed in Fenelon Falls and visited another sister who is a resident at the Manor in Peterborough. They also enjoyed a trip to Tara before leaving for home.

Don't forget the Bake Bingo to be held at Kinmount Legion Wednesday, August 11 at 7:30 p.m.

The Gordon Taylor's of Norland had guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McMann of Stouffville, August 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith of Toronto, are at present holidaying at the home of Dora and Bill Lilley in Norland. Mrs. Smith is recovering from major surgery and we wish her well.

Bert Young of Kinmount is a patient in Haliburton Hospital and let's hope Bert is well soon and home again.

Stay well, be happy and be here next week - 488-2399.

Miss Theresa Fitzpatrick of Detroit, Michigan has been visiting Mrs. Mary Limrick for the past two weeks. Visitors of Theresa and Mary were a number of relatives and friends including Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nesbitt, Debbie and Carol Ann of Brampton; Vince and Jack Fitzpatrick of Havelock, Theresa McGrath of Mar-mora and Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Cobourg.

Mr. and Mrs. S.R. Miller of Oakville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Basinger last week. The Basinger's and Miller's visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Basinger at Stayner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brohm of Kempville; Mr. and Mrs. Atkin Archer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wynelle of Lindsay and Mrs. Ada Irwin of Lindsay visited Mr. and Mrs. Ross Faulkner last week.

Pioneer days are almost here again. On August 21 and August 22 businesses will be promoting the "Old Days". There will be displays of old equipment and dress and should you visit our little town you may feel you are in Mennonite country. If you have something from the "Good Old Days" to contribute come along and join in the fun.

Maggie Cameron celebrated her 86th birthday on Friday, with a cake and a number of well wishers calling throughout the day.

Winners in the Senior's euchre held Tuesday night were as follows: Ladies' first - Bessie Sedgewick, 90; ladies second - Julie Ramsey, 76; consolation - Lillian Brown; most lone hands - B. Sedgewick, 6. Gent's first - Barbara Kenneth; gent's second - Ron Pearce; consolation - Dorothy Brown; most lone hands - Ron Pearce, 6. Bridge - first, Vi Gagne, 4820; second, Helen McGregor, 4320; consolation - Lyle Laramour - 1150.

John Burgess has a lovely new sign erected at the corner of his property advertising "Coboconk Feed Mill and Garden Centre". You can't miss it folks! It's at the bottom of the hill, west side, as you drive south out of Coboconk.

Mrs. Ron Nesbitt of St. Thomas has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frances Nesbitt this past week. Sympathy to Mrs. Nesbitt and Lila Warburton of Minden whose niece was murdered in Lindsay a week ago. Mrs. Muriel Nolk lived at 51 Lindsay St., South, Lindsay, and was murdered Thursday.

Chatting with Irene by Irene Moore

I had the good fortune to attend the Original Herrmann Royal Lipizzan Stallions performance last week. It was really great, but then I like horses. The saying is if you like horses, you would enjoy the show; but if you do not like horses you would not go to see them perform. A lot of people must have liked them, for there was a good attendance at each performance; for those who missed the shows, you may still see them at Lindsay next Saturday, August 21.

Mrs. Philip Hulzing and her daughter Carcin from Berkeley, Holland, had a nice visit with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Schrader and their family, and also with Margaret Burke, before journeying to Ottawa, where they will visit Mrs. Hulzing's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. G. Seesink.

Have you been to the Haliburton County Farmers' Market yet? It is beside the firehall and opens at 9 a.m. every Saturday morning. Now 9:00 may be a bit early for most of us who like to sleep in, but they will still be there until noon.

May Wright was very happy to have her grandson Ray Johnston, from Base Petawa with her over the holiday week-end.

The secret of happiness is not in doing what you like, but in liking what you do.

While on holidays, Blake and Joyce Hughes, also daughters Amy and Rachel of Mississauga, spent a few days with Bob and Bertha Hughes.

Dorothy and Red Cade and friends visited Dorothy's aunt Ethel Harrison last week.

Firemen from Haliburton County are attending courses this week at Minden Firehall on Auto extricating people from car accidents. So don't be alarmed when you see those bright yellow or are they orange trucks at the firehall. Just be glad the firemen will know what to do if you ever need them.

If you are not fond of Liver but should eat it, this might help change the taste. 1 tbsp. margarine or oil; 2 pounds beef liver, sliced thin; 3 tsp. salt; 1 tsp. pepper; 2 tbsp. brown sugar; 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce; 1 tbsp. cider vinegar; ¼ cup tomato catsup; ¼ cup water. Heat the margarine or oil in a frying pan, coat the sliced liver with flour and brown on both sides. In a large bowl, combine all the other ingredients. Add to fry pan and cook until liver is tender, (about 20 minutes), serve piping hot. Liver in Barbecue Sauce is the name of this goodie.

Jerry and Pearl Durant have had a delightful visit with their granddaughters Keri and Kristi Durant of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hart of Detroit, Michigan, also their guests, are returning home after a year-long trip on their boat, from Detroit to Florida and home again.

Leftover egg whites freeze nicely for future use, but since they run together, keep count of the number.

Beverley and Carol Emerson spent the week-end with Marg Frise at her cottage.

"Sammy" is being shown at the Allsaw Pentecostal Church Drive-In on Sunday, August 15.

Chris Pritchard, who was home on holidays recently, was home this past week-end, before leaving for Germany on a public relations tour. Chris, who is from Forces Base Petawa, has spent several tours of duty in Germany, so is familiar with the bases there.

It is good to know that some people are starting to think about election time now; but I still say one lady on each council would keep the men on their toes, so get busy and keep thinking hard.

Marg Burke is visiting with Jack and Leitha Grexton and family at Sault Ste. Marie for a week.

Don't forget to visit the Minden and District Horticultural Flower Show at the Community Centre this Thursday evening from 7 - 9 p.m.; and from 10 - 5 p.m. Friday.

"As it was then" is the theme of the items being shown at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery this month. This will coincide with the Haliburton County Fair which is August 21, 22.

It was some week-end for Ron and Shirley Cox of Peterborough. It was Ron's birthday, so his parents Lyman and Mary Cox said they would come down and help celebrate. His son Kevin was home from Edmonton, also daughter Kim, with her son Paul from Red Lake; but when all arrived, Ron and Shirley found out that because of the family being home, it had been decided to hold their 25th wedding anniversary at the same time. Shirley's mother, Ruby Carr of Castleton, her brother and wife Fred and Arleen Paull and family of Warkworth, plus other relatives from the surrounding area were present. Basil and Darleen Cox and family of Bancroft with Goldie and Beryl Henderson and family of Roseneath also attended. From Minden present were Garth and Shirley Horsely and family; Wayne and Lynne Cox and Megan; Ken and Carol Cox and Christina. Boy that was some party.

Remember to walk tall - but don't forget how to stoop.

Adios and take care now.

Congratulations to Susan (nee Prentice) and Bob Brodie on the arrival of their son, Thomas Peter McColl.

Debbie and Paul Mitchell of Mount Albert were weekend visitors with Margaret and Doug Bates.

The Gooderham United Church Women are holding a bazaar, rummage and bake sale in the United Church basement on Saturday, August 14, at 2 p.m.

Stephen Bell of Toronto is vacationing with his parents, Hazel and Ken Bell. They all enjoyed a trip to Smith Falls and Ottawa.

The scheduled time for Decoration Day services at Glamorgan Township Cemetery has been changed from 2 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. this Sunday.

Gooderham News by Mary Hadley

Intended For Last Week

Patsy and Walter Ward, with their little son, Christopher, visited Patsy's mother, Elva Bates, and other family members over the weekend.

Grant Hadley, with his daughters, Edna Morgan, and Marjorie Hallam, of Minden, spent a couple of days at his home in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dipple and family of Kitchener, visited the James' last Wednesday.

Fred Brower was in our village last week renewing old acquaintances. He was a familiar figure many years ago when he was prospecting in this area.

Thirty-four members and guests sat down to the monthly pot luck luncheon meeting of the Glamorgan Senior Citizens' group last Wednesday. It is always surprising and delightful to see the variety and quantity of food on the table.

Among the guests were Claire and Ed Loft of Windsor, Bill Beatty from Capreol and three grandchildren of Evelyn and Fred Vandervland.

Following the business period Ruth Redford, another guest, gave a short talk on life in New York City where she has lived for forty years.

She told us of the immensity of this populous city, but said it was composed of different cities within the city; such as Chinatown, the Puerto Rican section and so forth.

There were many good things which outweigh the criticisms levelled against it, such as the poverty and crime. There were no homes; everyone lived in apartments or they commuted.

After card games, the meeting was adjourned.

We hear of many deer being seen in this area. In fact two were killed last week while crossing the road, leaping over the cars, thus caused damage to the vehicles.

Lorie and Dale Smith, of Oshawa, with their little son, Corey, called on their aunt and uncle, Beulah and Gordon Barr, last week.

Shirley and Reg McGrath of Hagersville spent the weekend with their uncle, Garnet Hadley and his daughters at his home in the village.

Gladys Monaghan and her sister, Elva Whitcombe, of Toronto, are spending most of August with their sister, Norma Fotheringham and Bob.

Elsie Domoney and her mother, of Toronto, are holidaying at their cottage on Pine Lake.

On Thursday, July 29, the Deck hands returned with their new puppet shows to the Glamorgan Public Library. Anna DeVries, Morag Thornton and Karen Vaneyk are all students at Queen's University and they presented two shows: "Why the Bear has a Stumpy Tail" a new version of a Norse folk tale and "The Plump Princess", an original fairy tale for marionettes adapted for hand puppets.

There were 28 children and several adults present. The children enjoyed the puppet shows immensely and joined in during a sing-song led by one of the puppeteers. Another puppet show will be presented August 31.

Mrs. Allan Madill died in Case Manor, Bobcaygeon, Thursday morning, July 29 in her eighty-eighth year. The former Sophia Pickens, she was born in Gooderham and lived here till the death of her husband, four years ago, when illness forced her to enter a nursing home.

For years she was an efficient secretary-treasurer of the Agricultural Society with its fall fair which flourished in Gooderham. She took an active part in the work of the United Church Women, being president for some time. She was always a good neighbour.

She leaves, to mourn her loss, her daughter, Audrey Prentice, and sons, Murray and Bob of Peterborough and Mossom of Toronto.

One son, Allan, predeceased her. She also leaves several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the United Church on Saturday with Maurice Bradley officiating.

He spoke comforting words to the family on their memories of a good mother.

Our community extends deepest sympathy to the bereaved.

Greg and Steven Riel, sons of Joan and Gordon Riel, of Spruce Grove, Alberta, are visiting their grandparents, Vera and Walter Riel.

Congratulations to Karen and Eddie Hunter on the birth of a son, a little brother for Christopher at the Haliburton Red Cross Hospital on August 1.

The weatherman smiled on us for the Gooderham Horseshoe Days last week-end. Avery Spencer acted as the able and affable master of ceremonies. Again, by popular request, he performed his unique three-legged dance accompanying in song. This always draws a crowd.

The "Versatiles" produced good music for dances both on Friday and Saturday nights. Both events had a good attendance.

Horseshoe pitching was one of the main attractions. Ron Barr presented the trophies to the winners. First place in the doubles went to Carl Roberts and George Reeson; second went to Jack Lang and Ron Barr and third to Frank Shewring and Dennis Graham. Fourth were Bill Peel and Bob Hunter. The singles were played on Sunday with the following results: first place was Frank Shewring; second was Harvey Roberts; third was Jack Lang and fourth was Bob Hunter.

"Use what talents you possess; the woods would be very silent if no birds sang there except those that sang best."

We send get well wishes to Mrs. Grace Munro who is a patient in Huntsville Hospital. Grace fell in her home on Rabbit's Bay and sustained two fractures which will incapacitate her for a period of time. Our prayers and kind thoughts are with her.

Mrs. Isobel Hess visited friends in the village recently. Her husband, Quimby, was director of the Frost Centre in years past and Isobel was supply teacher in the Dorset Elementary school.

Hector and Marcella McKay have returned from a month's motor trip to the West coast. While in British Columbia they visited an aunt, Mrs. Nick Wettlauffer. They had perfect driving weather and enjoyed the trip very much.

The Dorset Anglican ladies are holding a bake sale on Saturday, August 14 at 2 p.m. in front of the church, so it's a good time to load up on week-end goodies.

We want to congratulate Norm and Karen Clift, of Paint Lake Road on the birth of their daughter, Kristy Lynn, at the Huntsville Hospital on Tuesday, July 27.

Guilford Pulse Beat by Bill Wood

Last week, due to lack of space, the Echo did not publish my column. This is a "follow-up" to cover this past week's news.

Monday, August 2, the Haliburton Ladies softball squad edged out our West Guilford girls with a score of 11 to 10. A close game that was enjoyed by all at the Haliburton diamond.

Thursday, August 5, on home turf the West Guilford girls turned the tables on the Haliburton ladies by defeating them 12 to 4. One highlight of the game was when Bethany "The Bruiser" Wood, was signaled to bunt by her coach. Bethany bunted as directed, the ball was overthrown at first by the Haliburton pitcher and "The Bruiser" pushed two runs across home plate. A homer on a bunt! Fantastic! Eat your hearts out Blue Jays!

Saturday, August 14, is the day scheduled for the Sisson Family Reunion. The Sisson picnic, which is an annual event, gets bigger and bigger every year. A book of the Sisson Family Tree is being put together, with the help of the whole Sisson "clan".

All clan members are urged to help bring the records up to date. Please notify, in writing, the dates and details of any recent births, deaths, marriages, and so on, to Mrs. Violet Smith (nee Sisson), co-author of the future book, who will be on hand at the Sisson picnic, to receive your notations.

I will be in contact with "Aunt Vi", after the reunion, to write an article on the Sisson clan, such as I did with the Boice Family Tree a few months ago. A great time will be had by all who attend the picnic at the West Guilford Recreation Centre this Saturday.

Intended For Last Week

Hi Neighbours! Another week of summer has slipped away and it is time for this past week's news.

Val Harrison, called me to complain on behalf of her husband, Elmer, Elmer, is chairman of the cemetery committee for our area. He had received a call from Russell Bain, caretaker for the church and cemetery on highway 118 and Stanhope Road.

Russell complains that unknown persons are using the cemetery grounds as a "lover's lane". Others are using the same hallowed grounds as a place to dispose of their garbage. The night animals are scattering the trash all over the area which Russell is trying so hard to keep clean.

With all the quiet dark roads in the area it seems a "bit kinky" to me that a couple would choose the "resting place of the departed, as a spot for courting. As to the disposing of garbage bags on the same site, this is sheer ignorance on the part of the offender.

There are ample sites, maintained by the municipality, for the purpose of disposing of garbage and trash. I sincerely hope that any of my readers who see these people violating holy ground this way, will report them to the proper authorities.

John and Lietha Kuchelema of Toronto, visited their cottage on Maple Lake this past weekend. They would like to announce the marriage of their daughter, Debbie Clark, of Maple Lake to Danny McKelvey, the son of Mrs. Roene McKelvey and her late husband, "Buster".

The McKelvey's are from Minden. Lietha Kuchelema (nee Harrison) was a resident of Maple Lake for many years. August 14, 3:30 p.m. is the date and time for the young couple to "Tie the Knot". The Allsaw Pentecostal Church will be the place.

Evelyn Robertson informed me that the Fort Irwin residents association's bake and craft sale, last Saturday was a huge success. Ethel Young of Toronto won the basket of "goodies".

The Fort Irwin residents association would like to thank Harold and Phyllis Heinze of Heinze enterprise for the bake sale space they donated.

A special thanks to all those who participated as vendors, and to the general public, for the fine turn-out.

Last Saturday, Lady Jean and I were at the Legion's flea market, and saw many of the area's cottage crowd as well as local residents. The Legion ladies, did a fine job, as usual, serving sandwiches and refreshments. A good time was had by vendors and buyers as well.

Book your table now for the September 4, flea market at the Legion.

Note: to the party, that "borrowed" the pin-wheel from my sign at Redstone and Kennis Lake Road. If they would stop in at the Brae-Mar, I will sell them all they want for 35 cents each and give them a ten per cent discount as well. How cheap and infantile some people are; it amazes me.

That's all the news for now, please call this Pulse-Beat reporter if you have any news items for next week's column. Until then God Bless and take care. (754-2854).

Trent Severn

Isolated thunderstorms and dull conditions over the last half of August 1-week-end caused rainfall amounts of 2 mm to 39 mm to be recorded at different locations across the Trent-Severn Waterway. This caused some lakes to rise several centimetres while others receiving less rainfall held steady. The major water control operations this past week were alterations to flows to bring all the Kawartha Lakes back to within their navigation ranges. The Otonabee River flow was increased slightly to get rid of some surplus water.

The total outflow from the reservoirs was decreased slightly, with the flow of the Gull River reduced and the Burnt River flow increased. The Trent-Severn reservoirs dropped 3.9 per cent over the week, stand at 79.7 per cent full on August 3.

Lake Simcoe-Couchiching remained slightly above the rule curve level over the past week, but has started to decline more quickly in recent days. The discharge from the lake remains above normal.

Winter wheat harvest has begun

Winter wheat harvesting has begun. But the rain in late May and June favoured disease development in many areas. As a result, reduced yields are expected.

The most common diseases are glume blotch, take-all, eyespot, and crown rot. Glume blotch results in numerous dark-brown to purplish spots on the wheat head. It can spread from the heads to the leaves and can also become seedborne.

Take-all, eyespot and crown rot all produce similar symptoms. Premature bleaching of the heads and stems, resulting in heads with few or no kernels, will occur in patches throughout the field. Decay in the bleached stems will cause the plants to lodge.

There is also considerable risk of mycotoxins this year particularly in second year wheat or wheat following corn. Portions of the head will ripen prematurely and if these heads are kept in a plastic bag for a few days a pinkish fungus, commonly known as pink mould, will develop.

This fungus produces mycotoxins which are injurious to humans as well as to farm animals, especially swine and other non-fuminants.

Little can be done about this year's crop. As far as next year's winter wheat there are several steps that can help prevent further problems.

Firstly where possible grow wheat on land which was not used for small grains or corn this year.

Sherborne, McClintock, Livingstone

At the July 12 meeting of Sherborne, McClintock and Livingstone council, the following matters were discussed:

Delbert Page, township road superintendent, reported to council. Dust control operations by oiling of township roads where necessary have now been completed. Algonquin Outfitters Road did not receive this treatment due to the delay in necessary road work.

Page reported to council that construction will take place on July 13 on Algonquin Outfitters Road as approved by council.

Frances Gower submitted a letter to the Reeve to be read at council. This letter was from the Oxtongue Lake Association in response to planned road work to be done on Algonquin Outfitters Road.

The Clerk was directed to correspond with the secretary of the association indicating receipt of the letter and document that approved works previously outlined will take place commencing July 13.

If year round maintenance is to continue on this road upgrading must take place so that snow removal can be carried out.

John Zilney, janitor at the municipal dumps, attended council. Council indicated that they were not satisfied with maintenance at the local dumps. It was stated that family members were replacing Zilney if he was absent. This practice could not continue.

It was stated by Zilney that if council was not satisfied that perhaps other arrangements should be made. Zilney left the meeting with the understanding to turn in his hours and that he was dismissed.

William Obee, County engineer, appeared at council upon invitation to discuss the members' concerns in respect to the county road system.

County Road 8 is currently under construction resulting in a diversion at the head of Trader's Bay. Sections along the lakeshore of the old road bed will be stopped up for traffic.

The section of road in front of Cassidy will be stopped up, closed and sold. The township will assume, once the road top is re-habituated, the section of road leading to Dunn's Road and in front of property owned by Russell.

Obee outlined that further work will be done at the intersection of Fletcher Lake Road (County Road 12) to provide better visibility at the stop sign.

Council informed Obee that an inspection is required at the intersection of Highway 35 and District/County Road 39 through hamlet of Dorset. The corner requires brushing. Obee indicated that this had been checked and necessary work will be done.

Wayne T. Moore, Senior environment officer for Muskoka-Haliburton spoke with council regarding the waste management study now being undertaken for the county. Each municipality was to submit a questionnaire to the consultants. Explanations were given to council regarding the reasons why this study is being undertaken by the county and that field inspections of each disposal site would be made by a representative along with an interview of personnel maintaining said sites.

The Clerk was directed to complete those sections of the questionnaire, which could be verified with data on file.

Moore also discussed with Council the recent format sent to the municipality for consideration dealing with waste disposal site - operating programmes. Various proposals were reviewed and it was concluded that council could submit an operating program which was felt could be implemented and request approval from the Ministry of the Environment.

Fred Baum, Reeve, spoke with the ratepayers present. Ratepayers from McComb Point Road re-iterated to council their concerns about parking vehicles along the side of road allowance of County Road 8 (South Kawagama Lake Road) during the winter months. They asked if there could be a solution to their problem. The Reeve indicated that a solution was being sought; but to date nothing had been confirmed.

A road voucher was approved for payment in the amount of $51,751.28.

Council once again reviewed the preliminary proposal presented by Curry Bishop, O.L.S. and Fraser Rogers, Solicitor on behalf of property owner of lands previously known as Camp Otter.

The Clerk was directed to inform Rogers to make application for a plan of subdivision approval as set out in the Planning Act, Section 36.

The general accounts were paid in the amount of $4,607.42.

COME OUT WITH YOUR IDEAS.

At the Ministry of Natural Resources, we have to be a lot of things to a lot of people. That's why we want to hear your ideas.

We've compiled draft district land use strategies which recommend the many ways Southern Ontario's natural resources ought to be managed. And with forests, fish, wildlife, mineral resources, provincial parks, marshes, recreational areas, waterfronts, and lots of dry land to consider, that can be a pretty wide open area.

So we want you to tell us what you think. To make it easier, we're sponsoring a series of Open Houses, in districts all across Southern Ontario, giving you the chance to come out and tell us how you feel about what we have in mind.

YOUR INPUT IS A VALUABLE RESOURCE. NATURALLY, WE WANT TO USE IT.

CONTACT YOUR LOCAL DISTRICT OFFICE OF THE ONTARIO MINISTRY OF NATURAL RESOURCES FOR MORE INFORMATION. throughout the patch.

When picking raspberries never put a box of berries on the ground. As soon as a box is full take it out of the patch and place it in an enclosed area, such as a screened building.

Or you can use mashed bananas mixed with 1 teaspoon of "Sevin 50 per cent W.P.". Put this bait in a similar container or use two aluminum pie plates taped together with the small holes in the top plate.

In a small raspberry patch, it is possible to bait the sap beetles. Two methods of baiting are suggested. Mix one teaspoon of "Sevin 50 per cent W.P." in one litre of apple cider vinegar. Distribute this solution in containers which have small holes made in the lids (such as plastic margarine containers).

Once a week, renew with fresh bait, disposing of the old bait and used container in a safe manner. Keep the bait out of reach of children, pets and livestock.

These baits will work without chemicals, only you have to have a method of destroying the sap beetles collected each day.

Kinmount Korner

by Millie Moss

Intended For Last Week
Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Sophia Jane Madill, who passed away at Case Manor, Bobcaygeon, Thursday, July 29.

Recent guests at the home of the G. Taylor's in Norland, were Mr. and Mrs. David Brooks and family of Keswick, Mr. and Mrs. David Chamberlain of Oshawa and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Le Poidevin of Lindsay.

Congratulations to Wes Liscombe on his win of four hundred dollars plus in the 50/50 draw held last week at the Coboconk Legion.

Florence and Percy Sherman of Kinmount had guests on July 27. They were Oscar and Betty Cobin, their daughter, Debbie and son Earl of Tessier, Saskatchewan.

May Doherty from Lindsay and her sister Audrey Bryant of New Zealand. May and Audreys' parents, the late Charles and May Doherty lived in St. Patrick's Rectory, Kinmount, many years ago.

and I'm sure many of you will remember them.

The Galway-Cavendish "Summer Festival '82" is to be held August 7 at the Kinmount Fairgrounds, Kinmount. The events are: 10:00 a.m. there is a giant auction sale, continues until all goods sold; at 11:00 a.m. a horseshoe tournament; from 12:00 until 5:00 p.m. there are helicopter rides, a dunk tank, hay rides, prizes and lucky draws, a white elephant sale and bake tables, a snack bar, a log rolling contest, a wheelbarrow race; canoe jousting, children's games and rides.

Then from 8:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. there will be a wind-up dance featuring Lyle Gannon with a buffet at 12:30 a.m. Plan to attend and enjoy a fun day. All proceeds from these events will be donated to the community building funds. Admission will be $4.00, to the fairgrounds arena. This is a day for all the family.

I'm glad to hear Gladys Silver is now home from hospital. I hope to see you out and around soon.

Happy birthday to Bonnie Walker on August 3.

I'm sorry to hear Ruth Menard is in Minden Red Cross Hospital as of July 28. Get well soon Ruth, they miss you at Kinmount Legion bingo.

A fun bingo night will be held at Kinmount Legion, Branch #441 on Wednesday, August 4 beginning at 8:00 p.m. Come out and enjoy the evening with your friends. Admission is 75 cents.

The following week, Wednesday, August 11, same place, same time, a bake sale bingo night will be held. The Legion ladies bake and donate the goodies which are used as the bingo prizes. It sounds like fun.

It's nice to hear Bill Menard and Blair Crego are feeling better these days.

The Highlands Cinema will be showing "The Sound of Music" on August 4 and 5. Then on August 6 and 7, "The Great Muppet Caper". Both these movies begin at 7:00 p.m. and are rated for family viewing. A second show beginning at 9:30 p.m. is titled "Missing" and is rated adult accompaniment.

Another recipe from Ireland, this one comes from Dorothy McIlwaine who has sent it from Glenwherry, Ballymena which is in County Antrim. A copy of this column will be going out to you from Norland, I'm told, and we would like to say thank you for your recipe for "Bounty Bars".

Jobs to be created for forestry workers

Eleven more companies have signed agreements to provide short-term employment for skilled forestry workers who have been laid off. Ontario Natural Resources Minister Alan Pope announced recently.

The companies are taking part in the ministry's Accelerated Forest Improvement Program (AFIP) which was announced in February by Mr. Pope and federal Employment and Immigration Minister Lloyd Axworthy.

Twenty-two companies have signed agreements with the ministry.

Additional companies now under agreement are Domtar Inc. of Tweed, Dombroski and Sons Ltd. and Kearney Lumber of Algonquin Park, Newaygo Forest Products Ltd. of Chapleau, Levesque

Lumber Co. Ltd. of Hearst, Domtar Inc. of Nipigon, Foothills Timber Ltd. of Atikokan and Abitibi-Price Inc. of Iroquois Falls.

The addition of these companies to the program means that 294 people will have jobs that will carry them through a total of nearly 3,000 weeks of work.

Negotiations are concluding on a further 10 proposals with companies from a number of communities including Bracebridge.

Funding was set aside for the AFIP under the Cooperative Projects Employment Fund, announced in the Ontario budget last month.

The program is a bridging measure that allows companies to rehire skilled workers who have been laid off and are receiving federal unemployment insurance.

The MNR, through the Board of Industrial Leadership and Development (BILD), contributes $60 a week plus a family protection benefit package which includes 100 per cent of Workmen's Compensation and OHIP.

The programme helps accomplish many necessary resource management jobs such as stand improvement, building forest access roads, reforestation, fire hazard reduction, wildlife habitat improvement and forest protection. It also allows forestry dependent communities to retain skilled workers, forestry payrolls and community vigor.
